IN MEMORY OF GEORGE ADAMS.

Another happy family has been blessed by the sudden death of one of its all, but it is only a painful dream which has been cast aside.

When we saw Mr. George Adams in his last resting place in the Richmond cemetery, we all realized that the sudden death of one of the loved ones of earth had been broken, but only to await the coming of the day when the loved one will all those who have been left behind, and the day when the loved one will be reunited with those who have been left behind.

It is a great consolation for his loved one to know that he was a Christian, a devoted husband, kind and affectionate father and well known to all those who have been left behind, and the day when the
loved one will be reunited with
those who have been left behind.

Cannot Serve as Road Supervisors in Counties

Decides Court of Appeals

ALSO CANNOT VOTE MONEY TO THEMSELVES FOR SUCH WORK

One Lawful Supervisor

(From Court Journal)

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 4.—In reversing judgment of the Boyd Circuit Court in the case of Arthur and others, Magistrates of the county, the Court of Appeals today affirmed the law authorizing the appointment of supervisors of roads in counties and the expenditure of public money for that purpose. It holds that no person who is a magistrate can serve as a supervisor of roads in the county; that it has no authority to appoint more than one supervisor for the county; that it has no authority to allow its members to receive compensation for that office by law, and that where the County Attorney releases for any reason the County Judge, the County Clerk, the County Auditor or the County Treasurer, the County Judge of the county is authorized to appoint him. The opinion of the court was delivered by Judge Holt. The question was presented to the court through the making of an order by the Fiscal Court of Boyd county appointing to four Magistrates the sum of $1,800, to be spent "according to the discretion of each Magistrate." The court held that this was an illegal order and that the Magistrates were not to receive the money.
